THIS MATERIAL IS CONFIDENTIAL. THE ACCEPTANCE AND RETENTION OF THIS MATERIAL BY THE RECIPIENT SHALL CONSTITUTE AN AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND BY THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS SET FORTH BELOW.

This confidential material (this "Material") is being furnished upon request and on a confidential basis to a limited number of sophisticated investors on a "one-on-one" basis for the purpose of providing certain information about UC Multifamily Equity LLC (the "Fund" or "UCME"). This Material is for informational and discussion purposes only and is not, and may not be, relied on in any manner as legal, tax, investment, accounting or other advice or as an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any securities of the Fund. Any such offer or solicitation shall only be made pursuant to the final confidential private placement memorandum (as amended or supplemented from time to time, and including the subscription agreement attached thereto, the "Subscription Package") and the Fund's limited liability company agreement (collectively herein with the Subscription Package the "Operative Documents"), which will be furnished to qualified investors on a confidential basis at their request and should be reviewed in connection with any consideration of an investment in the Fund. This Material does not constitute a part of the Subscription Package and no person has been authorized to make any statement concerning the Fund other than as will be set forth in the Subscription Package and any representation or information not contained therein may not be relied upon. The information contained in this Material must be kept strictly confidential and may not be reproduced (in whole or in part) or redistributed in any format without the express written approval of Urban Catalyst Manager IV LLC (the "Manager"). By accepting this document, the recipient agrees that it will, and will cause its representatives and advisors to, use the information only to evaluate its potential interest in the Fund and for no other purpose and will not, and will cause its representatives and advisors not to, divulge any such information to any other party. Neither the Fund nor any of its affiliates makes any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of the information contained herein and nothing contained herein should be relied upon as a promise or representation as to past or future performance of the Fund or any other entity. Any potential investor considering an investment in the Fund that is on behalf of an employee benefit plan or individual retirement account (or governmental, church, or foreign plan subject to laws similar to those governing employee benefit plans and individual retirement accounts) is strongly encouraged to consult with its own legal and tax advisers regarding the consequences of such an investment. A prospective investormay only invest in the fund if such person is an accredited investor as defined in rule 501 of regulation d. Investing in the fund will involve significant risks, including possible loss of such person's entire investment.

There are substantial risks associated with the federal income tax aspects of an investment in the Company. The income tax consequences of an investment in the Company are complex and recent tax legislation has made substantial revisions to the Code. Many of these changes affect the tax benefits generally associated with an investment in real estate. A further discussion of the tax aspects (including other tax risks) of an investment in the Company is set forth in the PPM under "Federal Income Tax Consequences." Because the tax aspects of the Offering are complex, and certain of the tax consequences may differ depending on individual tax circumstances, prospective investors are urged to consult with and rely on their own tax advisor concerning the Offering's tax aspects and their individual situation. No representation or warranty of any kind is made with respect to the Internal Revenue Service's (the "IRS") acceptance of the treatment of any item by the Company or an investor.

It is anticipated that if the Company generates taxable income, such income will be considered UBTI. Tax-exempt entities should consult with their own tax counsel regarding the effect of any UBTI. See the PPM and "Federal Income Tax Consequences – Investment by Qualified Plans, IRAs and Tax-Exempt Entities – Unrelated Business Taxable Income."

Congress has recently enacted several major tax bills that substantially affect the tax treatment of real estate investments including, but not limited to, the tax provisions of the CARES Act. These changes will have a substantial effect on the type of activities in which the Company intends to engage, and certain of those effects are set forth under the appropriate subheadings under "Federal Income Tax Consequences." In many instances, Congressional Committee reports have been relied upon for the interpretation and application of these new statutory provisions. While the Code authorizes the Treasury Department to issue extensive substantive regulations regarding recently adopted Code provisions, few have been issued to date. In addition, Congress could make substantial changes in the future to the income tax consequences with respect to an investment in the Company.

While the Manager's projected returns are based on assumptions which the Manager believes are reasonable under the circumstances, the actual realized returns on the Manager's unrealized investment will depend on, among other factors, the value of the asset and market conditions at the time of disposition, any related transaction costs and the timing and manner of sale, all of which may differ from the assumptions and circumstances on which the Manager's projections are based. Accordingly, the actual realized returns on unrealized investments may differ materially from the Manager's projected returns indicated herein. There can be no assurance that projected or expected realizations or distributions will occur. Furthermore, prospective investors are encouraged to contact the Manager's representatives to discuss the procedures and methodologies used to calculate the investment returns and other information provided herein. General Risks of Investment in the Project: The economic success of an investment in the Company will depend upon the operations of the Project, which will be subject to those risks typically associated with an investment in a multifamily real estate asset. Fluctuations in occupancy rates, rent, and operating expenses can adversely affect operating results or render the sale or refinancing of the Project difficult or unattractive. No assurance can be given that certain assumptions as to the future levels of occupancy of the Project or future costs of operating the Project will be accurate because such matters will depend on events and factors beyond the control of the Company (see Private Placement Memorandum "PPM") and the Manager (see "PPM") (and its Affiliates). Such factors include, among others, the vacancy rates, financial resources of the tenants, rent levels and sales levels in the San Jose area, adverse changes in local population trends, market conditions, neighborhood values, local economic and social conditions, supply and demand for property such as the Project, competition from similar properties, interest rates, real estate tax rates, governmental rules, regulations and fiscal policies, including the effects of inflation and enactment of unfavorable real estate, rent control, environmental or zoning laws, hazardous material laws, uninsured losses and other risks.

General Risks Associated with the Development of Commercial Property: The construction of commercial real property is cyclical and is significantly affected by changes in national and local economic and other conditions, such as employment levels, availability of financing, interest rates and demand for commercial properties. Such uncertainties could adversely affect the performance of the Company. In addition, the development of real estate is subject to various risks, many of which will be outside the control of the Company, including conditions of supply and demand, weather conditions, natural disasters such as earthquakes and wildfires, delays in construction schedules, cost overruns, changes in government regulations, increases in real estate taxes and other local government fees and the availability of materials and labor. Certain expenditures associated with real estate development (principally construction costs) may increase over time. Additionally, the current U.S. presidential administration has imposed or sought to impose new or increased tariffs on goods imported into the U.S., including goods that are needed for construction of the Project. The imposition of new or increased tariffs may adversely affect the costs of construction materials that are needed to develop the Project. There can be no assurance that the occurrence of any of the foregoing will not have a material adverse effect on the Company. The development of commercial property is also subject to fluctuations in real estate values.

Construction Risks: Construction entails risks that are beyond the control of the Manager, the Company, the Operating Partnership, the Project Owner and the OP Manager. Completion of the construction of the Project may be delayed or prevented by factors such as adverse weather, strikes or energy shortages, shortages or increased costs of material for construction, inflation, environmental, zoning, title or other legal matters and unknown contingencies. Changes in construction plans and specifications, delays due to compliance with governmental requirements or imposition of fees not yet levied, or other delays could cause construction costs to exceed the amounts available from the Offering Proceeds, equity from Urban Catalyst Opportunity Fund I LLC ("Fund I"), Urban Catalyst Opportunity Zone Fund II LLC ("Fund II"), and The Thang Do and Chunhong Liu Revocable Trust, and any loans. In addition, abnormal rainfall could cause delays in construction which will increase construction costs. The Company, through the Operating Partnership, along with Fund I, Fund II, or third party equity sources, will need to provide funds to pay any construction costs in excess of amounts borrowed. In the event that construction costs exceed funds available, the ability of the Project Owner to complete the work to be done on the Project will depend upon the ability of the Operating Partnership members to supply additional funds. There can be no assurance that the Company will have adequate funds available for that purpose. The Project Owner may also utilize third party equity, third party preferred equity, and/or mezzanine debt to complete the Project. In the event third party preferred equity and/or mezzanine debt is utilized, the Company's investment in Gifford Multifamily Units may become subordinate to such financing. Any delays in construction may have an adverse impact on the cash flow and long-term success of the Company.

Leverage: The Delmas Senior PropCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Project Owner"), intends to finance the development of the Project with proceeds from one or more loans obtained from third-party lenders. Thus, the Project will be leveraged. The Company anticipates that the aggregate loan-to-cost ratio for the Project will be between 50% to 85% based on the development costs of the Project (with a target loan-to-cost ratio of 70%); provided, however, the Project Owner may obtain financing that is less than or exceeds such loan-to-cost ratio in the Manager's sole discretion. The Company has not obtained a commitment for any loans. Therefore, the amount and terms of any future loans are uncertain and will be negotiated by the Urban Catalyst Operating Partnership LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Operating Partnership"). No assurance can be given that future cash flow will be sufficient to make the debt service payments on any loans and to cover all operating expenses. If the Project's revenues are insufficient to pay debt service and operating costs, the Project Owner may be required to seek additional working capital. There can be no assurance that such additional funds will be available. In the event additional funds are not available, the lenders may foreclose on the Project and the Members could lose their investment. In addition, the degree to which the Project is leveraged could have an adverse impact on the Company, including (i) increased vulnerability to adverse general economic and market conditions, (ii) impaired ability to expand and to respond to increased competition, (iii) impaired ability to obtain additional financing for future working capital, capital expenditures; general corporate or other purposes and (iv) requiring that a significant portion of cash provided by operating activities be used for the payment of debt obligations, thereby reducing funds available for operations and future business opportunities.
